

Our Environmental, Social and Governance Program (ESG)

Environmental

Our environmental initiatives pertain to our internal business operations and our Bank's lending activities.

Facilities

- Our Corporate HQ, built in 2011, is LEED (Silver) Certified.
- We have installed Solar power in 10 Midland locations.
- We have made more than $50 million of credit available for residential solar projects since 2011.
- We have also provided $540 million of financing for 18 "green" (LEED, Energy Star, etc.) multi-family/health care facilities since 2017.

Paper Reduction

- More than 50% of our customers use paperless statements and we have had a paper elimination program in place since 2010.

Social

We strive to further the financial success of the families and small-medium sized/minority owned businesses in our markets by offering fair products and services supported by financial education and other measures.

Our Community Development Plan (CDP), which is available at www.midlandsb.com/community-development-plan, is designed to insure we serve as a catalyst for community development in our neighborhoods.

We strive to safekeep our customer's information, and help them reduce the chance of identity theft and online fraud.

Community Outreach

- We have been serving families and businesses since 1881, offering products and services based on the needs of our customers.
- We work with more than 150 low-to-moderate income (LMI) and minority focused community groups to insure we address the needs of each of our markets.
- The Midland Institute CEO program, a unique year-long program designed to teach entrepreneurship to high school students, was created in 2010. In 2022, more than 60 programs, serving 288 high schools in 10 states, now utilize this powerful program for energizing tomorrow's business leaders.

Culture and People

- Since 2008 Midland has provided all employees with personal and professional development training.
- Midland's Advanced Study for Talent Enrichment and Resource Training (MASTERS) program serves to develop future leaders of the Company. To date 65% of participants have been women or minority employees.
- Midland launched its Diversity & Inclusion Council in April 2020 to focus on diversity in the workplace and workforce.
- We offer paid time off for all employees to contribute their time and talents to recognized charities, causes or not-for-profit organizations, making a positive difference in their communities.

Philanthropy

- For the 2019-2021 Exam Period, we were credited for $132.5 million in community development loans.
- Since its creation in 2011, the Midland States Bank Foundation has contributed more than $1.6 million to non-profit organizations throughout Midland's footprint.

Financial Education

- Since 2015 we have held more than 240 financial literacy seminars in LMI/minority neighborhoods in our footprint.

Community Development and Financial Inclusion

- We have provided $877 million of financing for 148 affordable multi-family and health care projects since 2015.
- Through our Believable Banking® Residential Mortgage and Home Improvement programs we have made more than $97.3 million of loans to families underserved by traditional loan programs.
- Our banking products and services are offered through our personal bankers, online with materials clearly describing the features, costs and alternatives available, and by dual-language materials in our branches and our ADA compliant website.

Governance

Midland has a long history of effective corporate governance, inclusiveness and providing opportunities for personal and professional development for all employees.

Our Enterprise-Wide Risk Management program has been one of the five initiatives under our Strategic Plan since its creation in 2008. Our Executive Compensation program is designed to reward growth oriented results without exceeding proper credit and other risk tolerances for a community-focused banking organization.

Reputation and Ethics

- Midland States Bank was one of the first banks in the nation to have a woman on its board (1903).
- Our board composition includes 45% women and minorities, and our criteria for identifying directors includes seeking diverse individuals.
- Our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics is available at investors.midlandsb.com.

Oversight of Strategy and Risk Management

- The Company's Chair and CEO roles have been separate since the Company's inception (1988).
- All directors continuing after our May 2020 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, except our CEO, are "independent" pursuant to applicable SEC/NASDAQ rules.
- Our Board of Directors has established a Risk and Compliance Committee to oversee all aspects of risk and compliance management across our enterprise.
- Consistent with COSO's 2017 Enterprise-Wide Risk Management (ERM) Framework, our ERM program employs business process risk ownership and the "three lines of defense" model. The primary objectives of our ERM framework are to:
 - Maintain sufficient liquidity given our funding requirements;
 - Identify, measure, monitor and report market, credit and operational risks;
 - Promote awareness of emerging risks among all employees, managers, directors; and
 - Manage avoidable exposures through a robust framework of internal controls;

Data Security & Privacy

- We utilize data security programs and a privacy policy under which we do not sell or share customer information with non-affiliated entities.

Executive Compensation

- Our executive compensation, including all performance related compensation, is evaluated annually by Risk Management to ensure consistency with Federal Reserve Safety and Soundness requirements, and the Interagency Guidance on Sound Incentive Compensation Policies issued jointly by the federal regulatory agencies.
- All cash and equity incentive programs for executive officers include performance metrics and/or four-year vesting periods.
